Information, help and support for wombtwin survivors

PO Box 396, St Albans, Herts, AL3 6BY

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

All members support our aims, which are to provide information help and support for wombtwin survivors in the following ways:

- To undertake a programme of information gathering about the many different events in a twin or multiple pregnancy that lead to the intrauterine death of one or more embryos or foetuses.
- To identify the personality characteristics of wombtwin survivors and publicise them, so that wombtwin survivors can identify themselves and be recognised as such.
- To make contact with as many wombtwin survivors as possible throughout the world and interview as many as possible about their subjective experience of being the sole survivor.
- To disseminate information about the subjective experience of being a wombtwin survivor.
- To develop a range of useful therapeutic interventions for distressed wombtwin survivors of all ages.
- To provide training for various professional groups in how to identify and bring out the best potential in wombtwin survivors and enable them to make full use of their special gifts.
- To find ways of bringing wombtwin survivors together into communities to normalise their feelings and maximise their potential.
- To offer personal support to wombtwin survivors where they are isolated and misunderstood, by means of email contact, healing groups and membership of wombtwin.com.
